The Pastor's Corner

Rev. Wayne P. Snodgrass, D. Min.

What a blessing to celebrate another Easter season. God has given us a great place to live and to worship. In 2011, we have a wonderful opportunity to be blessed again in this season of victorious joy.

Rev. Wayne Snodgrass

When you think of the cross of Jesus, what comes to mind? Pain? Suffering? Sacrifice? Consider this word: acceptance. When Jesus died on the cross, He died so that we would take on righteousness from the covering of His shed blood; so that God could look upon us and see us as His, through Jesus. Finally, Jesus died so that ultimately we would be accepted into God's Kingdom.

Some of us have a problem accepting ourselves. Guess who has already accepted you completely,, faults and all? Jesus. He has accepted even the worse thing about us. While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

We look forward to the day that as children of God, all of us will walk in harmony and love. Progressive Union has God's favor. We don't seek to be the best, just to do our part to help a people of a city be better for God. I'm challenging all of us to be a Church in the word, making a difference in the world.

2011 Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Honors Convocation

The Huntsville Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated held its 32nd Annual Honors Convocation on Sunday, March 6, 2011. The Honors Convocation recognizes the accomplishments of local high school students in grades 9-12 who have earned A's and B's in all subjects as cumulative first semester grades for the current school year. The honors convocation was held at the Progressive Union Church sanctuary with a reception following in the Family Christian Life Center (FCLC).

The Progressive Union honorees were: Ashlee Yvette Alexander, Madison Academy, daughter of Judson and Yolanda Alexander; Jessica B. Bertram, Sparkman High, daughter of Golden and Sharon Bertram; Taylor Burns, Sparkman Ninth Grade School, son of Michael and Sangernetta Burns; Kenneth Denzel Butler, Sparkman High, son of Juan and Joy Maldonado, and Marlon Butler; Marlon L. Butler, Sparkman High, son of Juan and Joy Maldonado, and Marlon Butler; Amberly Brooke Gaines, Sparkman High, daughter of Ed and Lynda Gaines; Engrid R. Mastin, Huntsville High, daughter of Arthur and Regina Mastin; and Tiana Jerisha Moseley, Sparkman High, daughter of Jerry and Debra Moseley. Marlon Butler was also honored as being a Four-Year Scholar. The Four-Year Scholars were recognized for honor roll status throughout their high school years; that is grades 9-12, this award is only given to seniors.

Congratulations to these scholars and keep up the good work in the classroom. Our very own Mychelle Leonard serves as Vice President of the Huntsville Alumnae Chapter and her daughter Courtney Winn was one of three young ladies featured in the program booklet Profile of Academic Excellence. Courtney, a member of Progressive Union, was an honors convocation recipient while attending high school. She is a 2010 graduate of Tuskegee University and is a first grade teacher at Harvest Elementary School in the Madison County School system.

NSBE AWARDS

The North Alabama Chapter of the National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE) Alumni Extension held its 18th Annual Scholarship Awards Banquet on Thursday, March 10, 2011 at the Holiday Inn Downtown in Huntsville. Each year for the past 18 years the alumni chapter has presented scholarships and awards to deserving students from the surrounding area. This year Progressive Union had two award winners.

Dionna Robinson, daughter of Mycah and Deanna Robinson, was a winner of the Creative Minds Poster Contest. The Creative Minds Poster Contest was established to advance the importance of science and math among elementary students. The purpose of the contest is to motivate youth towards creative thinking and to stimulate interest in science, math, and other subjects that support technology. The contest was open to 5th grade minority students in North Alabama. The poster contest theme was "What does science mean to you?" Dionna received a Summer Science Fun Pack which included tickets to the U.S. Space and Rocket Center, Sci-Quest, Early Works Children's Museum and other prizes.

Tevareus Crutcher, son of Teresa Crutcher, was a winner of a U. S. Space Camp and Academy Scholarship. He will attend the U.S. Space Camp and Academy here in Huntsville. The scholarship was created to encourage minority students in grades 6th through 8th who have expressed interest in math, the applied sciences, and/or engineering to further their understanding and excitement for technological fields. Each student had to complete a scholarship application, write an essay and be recommended by a teacher. Additionally the student had to undergo a personal interview.

Our very own Derrick Cameron, NSBE President, presided over the banquet.

Graduates

Attention 2011 graduates!!! In the May issue of the PROGRESS we will feature all members who are graduating during the months of May and June. If you are graduating from K4 through College, please complete a Graduation Data Form located in the foyers of the Church sanctuary and the FCLC. (Please do not use the School Days Form). Your completed form can be returned to the PROGRESS mailbox located in the FCLC. If you desire to include a picture with your information, please do so, the picture will be scanned and returned promptly. Deadline for graduation information is Sunday, April 24, 2011. If you have questions or need additional information, please contact Greg Miley at 256-859-5453.

Tithes and Offering Reports

The 2010 tax season has begun and now is the time to request tithes and offering information. Members desiring a copy of their 2010 tithes and offering donations are reminded that reports are available by request only. Requests should be made to the Church Accountant, Janice Crutcher, or the Church Secretary, Rachel Moore, 256-534-8266. Married couples should specify if they desire a combined report or separate reports for each person. Avoid the rush, make your request now.

Deployed Military Addresses

Below is the mailing address of two deployed members. Regular mail (now called snail mail) will BOOST their morale and uplift their spirits when they hear their names called out loud during "Mail Call".

Please continue to pray for these soldiers listed below and all of our military personnel that are deployed.

Nurses Guild Health Fair

The Nurses Guild will host its annual Health Fair on May 7, 2011. from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Health Fair offers informational material on various health issues pertaining specifically to African Americans. There will be information, activities and door prizes for all ages. The Health Fair will kick off with a fitness walk at 6:00 a.m. The walk will start at the church and end at the Post Office on Wynn Drive. Transportation will be provided for the return for those who desire to walk one way. Children are welcome, however, they must be accompanied by an adult.

For more information, you may contact Sis. Delvia Hughes at (256) 852-9327.

Home Going Services

Reverend Alfred B. Pleasure (God's Little Man) passed on Thursday, February 24, 2011. Funeral services were held on Friday, March 4, 2011 at Progressive Union with Rev. Snodgrass officiating. After moving to Huntsville and joining Progressive Union he was a member of the Deacon Board, Christian Education department, the Brotherhood and the Male Chorus. He accepted his call to the ministry and was ordained at Progressive Union. In December of 1993

he accepted the call to pastor the Shiloh M. B. Church in Woodville, Alabama, he served there until December 2010 when he retired and was granted the status of Pastor Emeritus. Rev. Pleasure was a loving and caring person and will be missed. He is survived by wife Mary, three children, seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Sister Bessie Lee Rice passed on Monday, February 28, 2011. Funeral services were held on Monday, March 7, 2011 at Progressive Union with Rev. Snodgrass officiating. Sister Rice was a longtime member of Progressive Union, previously sang in the senior choir (now called the Voices of Praise); and was an active member of the Titus II Missionary Department auxiliary. She is survived by her sister and cousins.

Sister Linda Faye Green Foster passed on Monday, March 28, 2011. Funeral services were held on Friday, April 1, 2011 at Progressive Union with Rev. Snodgrass officiating. Within Progressive Union she is survived by her husband, John Foster, sister, Jacqueline Reid, niece, Nicole Reid and aunt, Carolyn Davis.

The Department of Community Development Deferred Home Repair Program

The City of Huntsville's Department of Community Development held its' Annual Mission Day on Saturday, March 12, 2011. Volunteers from area churches and volunteer organizations joined together on Saturday, March 12, 2011 to make needed exterior repairs on homes in Huntsville. The Mission Day served as the start of the 2011 Deferred Home Repair Program.

Progressive Union Church Family Christian Life Center (FCLC) was the site for the kick-off program which started at 7:00 a.m. Michelle Jordan, the director of the Department of Community Development, greeted the volunteers and thanked them for being a part of the Mission Day. Huntsville Mayor Tommy Battle, District One Councilman Richard Showers, and District Five Councilman Will Culver greeted the volunteers and thanked them for volunteering their services to the city of Huntsville. Rosie Wade and Rodney McCallie, both Community Development employees, greeted the volunteers and passed out assignments for the day. The Progressive Union Church Singles Ministry continued their support of the Mission Day by providing breakfast for the volunteers. Brother Alfred Mathews, Brotherhood President, gave greetings from the church and prayed for blessings on the volunteers and the breakfast. The groups dispersed at 7:45 a.m. with assignments for projects which included yard clean up, replacement of rotten wood, painting, and vinyl siding installation. Volunteers from Progressive Union worked on a homes on Moore Avenue. Union Chapel Missionary Baptist Church and Morris Chapel Primitive Baptist Church provided sack lunches for the volunteers. The homeowners expressed their thanks and highly appreciated the work that was done.

The volunteers will be doing future repair jobs and volunteers will be needed for the remaining projects, for information contact Alfred Mathews, President or Greg Miley Vice-President of the Brotherhood Department.

On Tour

Lisa Nicole Bell delivered a keynote address in Nassau, The Bahamas at the 7th Annual Girls Leadership Conference hosted by Strengthening, Transforming, Restoring, Affirming young Women (S.T.R.A.W.), Inc. Lisa inspired more than 400 girls with a presentation on success strategies and feminine leadership. Lisa met with the U.S. Ambassador to the Bahamas and other government officials to discuss her work and learn about government and business initiatives in the Bahamas.

Lisa will speak at colleges, churches, and events throughout the world this year including the Inspired Girls Success Summit in New York City in September and the I Want It All Personal & Professional Development Conference in Montgomery, Alabama in August. Visit www.iwantitallconference.com to get tickets to the event.

Lisa recently joined the Young Entrepreneur Council, an invitation-only nonprofit organization led by the world's top, young entrepreneurs. The mission is to take action against youth unemployment through programs that encourage aspiring entrepreneurs to start their own businesses.

Lisa's upcoming film project, Stuck In The Middle, has been optioned by S6xth House Entertainment and is in development. The piece takes a candid look at the challenges of the evaporating middle class and tells the story of a family struggling to stay afloat.

Lisa is currently coauthoring The Soulful Parent, a book commissioned by the California-based Center for Improving Child Caring that will be released in April. Lisa will also serve as the spokeswoman for the campaign, designed to raise awareness about effective parenting techniques in the African American community.

Lisa's anthology, The Legacy Letters, will be released in May. Contributors include Sharon Lechter (Rich Dad, Poor Dad book series), Charlotte Ponticelli (International Ambassador for Women's Issues for the U.S. Government), Monique Coleman (Actress from High School Musical), Charisse Nesbit (VP of Development, Lionsgate Entertainment), and many more. Lisa will host a luncheon in Beverly Hills in May that will honor the contributing women and give teen girls in the Los Angeles area an opportunity to meet the high profile women in attendance.

Lisa is the daughter of George Bell and Rev. Vera Bell.
